

Klove is very influential in my home and community. It provides for excellent public service as well as a foundation of knowledge. If klove was displaced by an LPFM, then we would loose a valuable tool that dicusses life interests as well as music for my children that I do not have to screen as well as it commentators.